LIMITED WARRANTY AND TERMS OF SALE

Moisture TestKit Company's sole responsibility and liability under this warranty shall be to supply replacement test kit for any test kit warranted hereunder shown to be defective in manufacturing. Test kits are warranted against defects in material and workmanship for a period of ninety (90) days following the date of shipment. The product must be stored in dry place and used within ninety days from shipping date. Since the use of the test kit is beyond our control we cannot accept damage in excess of the purchase price of this product. Moisture TestKit Company makes no other warranty, expressed or implied, with respect to its product. Defects in materials caused by misuse, mishandling, improper storage, improper application, used in hazardous or dangerous manner, improper combination with product of others, or any other failure to strictly follow Moisture TestKit Company's guidance and ASTM Standards are not warranted under any circumstances. Moisture TestKit Company shall not be responsible for direct, indirect, consequential, exemplary, punitive or incidental damages arising from the use of the test kit regardless of the cause. Buyer and User assumes all liabilities for any loss, damage or injury to persons or property arising out of, connected with or resulting from the use of Moisture TestKit Company's products, either alone or in combinations with other products. By signing below the Buyer and User agree to the Limited Warranty and Terms of Sale. Moisture TestKit Company's liability for breach of warranty shall not exceed the purchase price of the test kits. Any claim or dispute against the Moisture TestKit Company or its employees or agents or successor shall be resolved by binding arbitration in accordance with the American Arbitration Association in Hayward, Alameda County, California, United States of America. This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, USA.
